

FROM PEDAGOGY TO PRACTICE

Living Native Language & Literacy:

Centering Indigenous language revitalization and literacy practices through community, pedagogy, and shared learning.

April 21 Tribal Language	April 22 Language & Literacy	April 23 Native Literacy
---------------------------------------	---	---------------------------------------

Daily: 8:00 AM - 4:30 PM

Breakfast, lunch, and snacks are provided daily. Traditional foods lunch served on April 22.

No cost to attend. Reimbursement available through ONE.

Contact Kari Tally: Kari.Tally@k12.wa.us

Attendance:

By invitation only. We are inviting:

- Tribal Language Educators
- K-12 Educators Serving Native Students
- Tribal Leaders & Community Members
- Education Partners & Native Literacy Workgroup

Location: Central Washington University 400 E. University Way, Ellensburg, WA 98926

Room: Black Hall 105-1 (Enter through Black Hall 101, west lobby)

Parking: Details provided upon RSVP.

Virtual Keynote Speaker
Dr. Anton Treuer:
1:30-2:45 PT
April 22

Zoom Meeting ID: 930 1984 9293

Passcode: 024506

Anton Treuer is an Ojibwe author, professor, and public speaker dedicated to Indigenous language revitalization, education, and cultural understanding.

OSPI

RSVP By April 6.
Click or Scan QR code.

Office of Native Education